

Each of us is a piece of this great puzzle, interlocking with one another to make one complete picture. Even though each is different, without our piece of the puzzle, our school would not be complete.

Remember, it is through our relationships and connectedness with one another that we will make a force SO STRONG that each of us will positively change the lives of the children and one another forever.